

ENVIRONMENTAL MAJOR PROGRAMS

The SpecPro Group helps the U.S. Air Force implement environmental compliance programs. We operate multiple hazardous waste facilities, execute prescribed burn capability (576 acres), manage extensive endangered species programs and also conduct NEPA assessments.

We are proud to be stewards of the only planet we call home. The SpecPro Group is ready to provide you with specialized professional for your total business needs!

Highlights

- 36,000 acres of natural habitat managed
- >100 ID/IQ task orders executed
- Award for Exemplary Safety Record
- Awarded fee rating – 96% over five years
- 500 acres of invasive vegetation removed from natural habitat
- Own yellow iron fleet – Brontosaurus, SuperSaurus, CAT966C front-end loader with root rake, Barko with Fecon Head, Hydro-Ax-Feller Buncher, 850C John Deere, TC100 Posi Track, ASV-PT100, Kaiser Jeep 6 x 6, Jeep with Fire Starter
- 65,000 acre scrub jay (threatened species) habitat maintained by prescribed burning in 10-year rotational cycle

Scrub Jay – Endangered Species

Terra Torch

Safety Award